

Raúl Alcocer

Mexican Tenor

Opera · Zarzuela · Concert repertoire

Raúl Alcocer is a Mexican tenor. His work spans opera, symphonic and choral projects, art song, and Mexican and Latin American repertoire.

He holds the LRSM in Singing from the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (ABRSM). Alongside performance, he works in composition, vocal pedagogy and projects dedicated to Mexican opera.

He has performed at the Palacio de Bellas Artes, Sala Nezahualcóyotl, Auditorio Nacional and Castillo de Chapultepec. His experience includes projects with the Orquesta Sinfónica de Minería, Orquesta Filarmónica de la Ciudad de México, Orquesta Filarmónica de las Artes and Orquesta Juvenil Universitaria Eduardo Mata.

European tradition. Mexican identity. Contemporary perspective.

From Puccini and Wagner to Ricardo Castro and Daniel Catán, his repertoire brings the European operatic tradition into dialogue with Mexican and Latin American music. Text, musical imagination and dramatic expression connect these worlds.
